INSTRUCTIONS FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

- 1. DEFINITION OF A TRANSFER STUDENT. Students who have been enrolled in any postsecondary (community college, technical/trade, four-year public/private, etc.) institution other than Porreco College since high school graduation, regardless of length of time attended, are classified as transfer students. Follow steps #1 and #2 above, and then continue below.
- 2. ADMISSION REQUIREMENT. Students must meet the regular admissions requirements.
- 3. TRANSCRIPTS. Official transcripts of the applicant's record at each institution, including high school, must be submitted to the Admissions Office. If incomplete transcripts are filed, it is the student's responsibility to have final transcripts, which include final grades for the most recent courses scheduled, sent to the Admissions Office. An evaluation of previously completed courses and credits will be conducted by Edinboro University to determine the number which will be transferable and counted toward graduation from Edinboro University. The University will also verify prior enrollment history, through the National Student Clearinghouse, for all incoming students.
